

FLASH INFO

PARIS, JANUARY 16th, 2018

Come and celebrate Sape culture and Jazz starting Friday evening ; Who's Next and Premiere Classe assemble the sapeur community!

In order to honour this movement, an exclusive performance will take place in Paris where prominent sapeurs will present their unique, eclectic style. Their energy will infuse the event and emphasise what they have always represented, such as originality and activism.

Different groups of sapeurs will present their wardrobes and style with total freedom. "We haven't imposed any stylistic restraints, we simply have a desire to allow free rein to the authenticity of this community which transcends fashion.

Who's Next and Premiere Classe remain a platform for powerful expression of identity, and will once again illustrate this with this performance.

In partnership with Chardel Marsanga (president and founder of FISAPE (Fédération Internationale de la Sape)).

Let's meet Friday 19th January at 7.30pm / Hall 4
